A LARGE FIELD EXPECTED TO RUN FOR THE

BIG PRIZE. Racing men all over town yesterday were grumbling at the decision of the Coney Island Jockey Club to postpone the Great Eastern Handigap and the other races appointed for that day on account of the condi-tion of the track. It is understood that this action was due to the Signal Service's weather predictions. Another day of rain like that of Tuesday was prophesied, and the club did not wish to run so important a stake in deep mud and in a heavy storm. But yesterday proved to be so delightful a day and the terial proved to be so delightul a day and the weather in the afternoon, especially, was so fine, that levery one regretted the postponement. It is much to be hoped that Mr. Withers will reconsider his decision not to start the Faverdale colt. He said on Tuesday that he would not run this colt in the Great Eastern on a muddy track, but perhaps he may conclude to start him after all.

As turiman with one accord rank the Faverdale celt among the best of the year, every one is eager to see him meet Fresno, Salvator, Madstone, Diablo and the other fast horses in the Great Eastern, at the weights assigned by Mr. Lawrence. By the way, it has been supposed in various quarters that Captain Coster was doing the handicapping at this meeting for Mr. Lawrence, but this is a mistake. Mr. Lawrence has been attending to this work himself, and has accomplished brilliant results.

It is certain to be a magnificent race for the Great Eastern. At the weights Fresno, Salvator, Madstone, Diable, Sonoma and Blue Rock must all be considered to have a chance. Yet, if Mr. Withers concludes to start the Faverdale colt, which we all anxiously desire that he will do, I prefer the Faverdale colt to win, and expect Mr. Haggin to run second with Fresno or Salvator, whichever of the two is ridden by Garri-If Mr. Withers does not run the Faverdale colt, I think that Mr. Haggin will win with the one of his pair that Garrison rides. Madstone has shown so high form and so much speed that he may get

The other races to-day are also of much interest. Terra Cotta ought to win the first one, with Prose Santalene should win the second race, with Ray-Figurent should have the Speed Stakes at his mercy, although Britannic, Salisbury and Tipstaff will keep him busy. But Egmont has shown sprinting form recently superior to any in the race, and ought to win beyond doubt. If Mr. Haggin should withdraw Sonoma from the Great Essiern and run her in the Speed Stakes, this fast filly should get second place. If sho is out, I think Tipstaff will run second to Egmont. Esfond should win the fifth race, with Housatonio in second place.

in second place.

Lebes ought to carry off the high-weight handicap on the grass, with Royal Arch second.

Scabreeze won by three lengths, with a head between Chillington and Zanzibar. Apollo finished fourth. The time of the race was The weather was clear and the sun shone brightly.

There was an enormous attendance. Ossory was first away, but was quickly passed by Ayrshire. Both preceded Orbit, who was attended by Seabreeze, White Flag and Nether Avon. Chillington, Zanzibar and lated business. A check from a well-known business Belle Mahone were next. Ayrshire kept a slight lead firm was received by his house and, after passing until a quarter mile had been covered, when he was pulled back and Estafette took up the running, with sory, Seabreeze and Ayrshire attending. Ossory at the half mile was driven at a strong pace to the front, with Belle Mahone, Estafette and Orbit following, and employes of the bank, the check was sent to the Scabreeze, Ayrshire and Love in Idleness next. There | Clearing House, where it was stopped, as the amount was little change in these relative positions until five for which the check was drawn was the only thing written on its face, there being no signature to it, no indorsement and not even the name of the payer. Half a mile from home Scabreeze headed Ossory. with Chillington and Ayrshire attending, Stronvar a Orbit next and Zanzibar heading the others. At the final hend Ayrshire took second place and drew up to final bend Ayrenter took second piace and drew up to Scabrecze's quarter, but collapsed just outside the distance pole, leaving Scabrecze clear. The race for the Tattersall Sale Stakes was won by Lord Durham's bay coll Testator. Sir G. Chetwynd's chestnut coll Cedar was second and Captain Soames's bay colt Sovereign third. The last betting was 5 to 2 against Testator, 5 to 2 against Cedar, 6 to 1 against

WELL CONTESTED BACES AT HAMPDEN PARK. Springfield, Mass., Sept. 12 (Special).—At the Hampden Park races to day the centre of attraction was the guaran-teed stake of $5.000 for the 2:22 class, and it proved a rattling race. Last night three heats of the 2:24 class were trotted, Darkness and Captain each having one. The second heat was declared dead between them. Company was much improved to-day, and won off the rect. In the big race, J. B. Richardson sold for $70, Kit Curry $60. big race. J. B. Richardson sold for $10, kit curry sold. Geneva S. $50, T. T. S. $46, and $143 for the field. Kit Curry won the first heat after a desperate struggle in the stretch with White Steckings and T. T. S. Curry led all the route in the second heat after a bad start, winning by two lengths under the whip. Richardson was unsteady and came home a poor fourth. The third heat was taken by Richardson, who new sold for even money against the field. He broke for about 100 yards, going the first quarter of the fourth heat, and left his feet again at the final swing home, but came in first by a length, T. T. S. at his wheel. The judges awarded the latter the heat. at his wheel. The judges awarded the latter the heat.

The fifth heat was won by Geneva S, in the last twenty-five yards, Richardson breaking in the stretch. But four horses appeared for the sixth heat, and after a desperate struggle Geneva S. won by a neck from Kit Curry, Richardson lapped on the second horse. The race was then postponed.

The free-for-all pace was well contested. Jewett won the first two heats in fine style. Then Gossip, Jr., won the following two heats, after which the race was postponed. Gossip seld favorite before the start at even money. Summaries:

THE CHARGE UNANSWERED BECAUSE UN-ANSWERABLE

From The Portland Oregonian.

In an elaborate article of twenty-five columns The New-York Tribune recently punctured the Civil Service pretensions of President Cleveland. A list of 218 appointments to important positions was examined, and it was shown by Democratic testimony that the appointees had been guilty of criminal offences, and owed their appointments to their artivity a partisan "workers." Each appointee's record was clearly set forth, and not only was the name of the Democratic paper making the charges given, but the date of the issue and the page upon which the statements can be found were also set forth, and the precise language quoted.

This astounding pre-entation was made nearly a month ago. Names and minute particulars were given, yet it stands unimpetached. In the whole history of the Government there has been no abuse of the public service that approaches this record, that covers only about three years. From The Portland Oregonian.

A SUIT OVER JAMES STOKESS ESTATE. TRYING TO COMPEL HIS SON TO SURRENDER

VALUABLE SECURITIES. Five hundred shares of stock of the Ansonia Brass and Copper Company, worth over $50,000, were transferred by James Stokes a short time before his death to his son William E. D. Stokes, and a suit has been begun in the Supreme Court to compel him to surrender these securities to the executors of his father's der these securities to the executors of his father's estate, together with certificates representing $192,750, the value of five shares in the firm of Fhelps, Stokes & Co. The action is brought by Henry Dale, whose wife, now dead, was the daughter of James Stokes. She contested her father's will, by which property worth over $5,000,000 was distributed. The will was sustained by the Surrogate and by the General Term of the Supreme Court, and the matter is now pending before the Court of Appeals.

Only a life interest in one-eighth of the estate was given to Mrs. Dale by a codicil of the will. Mr. Dale in his complaint charges that the defendant, by fraud and decett, induced his father to assign the stock of the Ansonia Company and the five shares in the firm to him. It is sought to have these declared to be a part of the residuary estate. Justice O'Brien has granted an order for the service of the summons by publication upon Louis Stade, a co-defendant, who is a non-resident.

SUING THE ITALIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. Ulderico Pittoreggi, an Italian merchant of this city, through his attorneys, Le Barbier & Brewster, of No. 35 Broadway, has begun a suit in the Court of Common Pleas against the Italian Chamber of Commerce in State-st., for libel, placing his damages at 875,000. Signor Pittoreggi alleges that the monthly bulletin issued by the Chamber had used his name in connection with a gang of swindlers who, in the guise of commission merchants, delude their countrymen in Italy into sending goods over here for sale, for which no returns are made. Pittoreggi, who is the agent of several commercial houses in Leghorn and other cities of Italy, claims that his credit in his native country has been ruined.

OF DOUBTFUL RENEFIT TO J. M. HILL. The findings of Justice Ingraham in the suit of Margaret Mather, the actress, against Manager James M. Hill, were filed in the Supreme Court yesterday. While deciding that there was no copartnership be-tween the parties, as was set forth in his opinion published yesterday, he refuses to find, as requested by the counsel of Mr. Hill, that the latter is not indebted to Miss Mather and has fully complied with his agreement with her; or that no false representa-tions were made to her; or that whatever investments he made for her were made with her consent. She will at once begin a suit against him to recover $30,000, which she claims that he owes her.

SHE SAYS HE STOLE HER HEART AND DIAMONDS. Mary E. Murray, of Brooklyn, has begun a suit to recover $50,000 as damages for alleged breach of promise of marriage from George Morford, a wealthy wholesale grocer of Bridgeport, Conn. She has also begun an action to recover $1,000, the value of diamonds which Mr. Morford presented to her and then obtained from her on the pretext of giving them a new setting and falled to return them to her. He is widower with one child and nearly twice as old as the plaintiff. Application was made in the Supreme Court yesterday for a warrant of attachment against the property owned by the defendant in Brooklyn.

NEWS FROM THE FIELD AND RANGE OF PRICES. ion, but the traders assumed some control of the fuctua-ions. It is a hard matter to guess what the net results tions. It is a hard matter to guess what the net results of their operations amounted to, but while prices generally ruled below the close of Tuesday, the depression accomplished was not marked. The export movement still lagsalthough there is no weakening in quantilous, and the drill has as yet uncovered no new field or possitively important well. It is apparent that the hammering of the bears fails to bring my pressure of long goods to the market, and until that can be accomplished it does not seem safe to expect any serious serback. The hupes of the operators for a fall, however, are resting upon the diminition of activity and the possibility of a surprise in the field. The market closed about steady, and a little nearer the highest than the lowest point of the day.

The range of prices and the total dealings were as follows:

p. m. the market was about 92 cents for December. There has not been a day for a long time when the market seemed so much of a riddle as to-day. Corn opened stronger and acted much as if it wanted to go up, but Hutchinson was a free seller most of the day above 45 1.4 cents for October, and this filled the denand. In oats there was a small trade, but prices were market strong. The receipts dropped oil to 178 cars, with 275 estimated for Thursday. Previsions were notice and lower in the early part of the season, and did not receive the decline up to 1 p. m., when short rits were 10 cents and lard 5 cents lower than they closely toster, day, but pork was unchanged. Wheat opened strong in the afternoon and sold up to 92 1-8-892 1-4 cents for December, but there was so much realizing that it sold back and closed at 91.3-4 cents lid. The feeling was rather weak at the close, ret the market closed a cent higher than yesterday. Other preducts were weakened somewhat just at the close, in sympathy with wheat. Charters were made for 49,000 bushels of wheat at 3.34 cents and 310,000 bushels of corn at 3.12 cents. December wheat on the curb is 91 5-8891 3-4 cents.

But investment holders and speculators, either "lug" or "short," may rest assured that the statement is not made to sell the stocks on.

FEATURES OF THE STOCK MARKET. FEATURES OF THE STOCK MARKET.

To-day's stock market, while ruling string, developed hesitation from waiting for the action of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul directors. Every one knew that no dividend had been earned in the six months ended June 30, but there was a general impression that the question of dividend when settled would temporarily affect prices.

11,651 Hence, what there was of speculation in the market was feverish. It also was announced, with an air of authority, that the Western Union statement for the quarter ending September 30 would 9,280 show only about $1,400,000 for its net carnings.

The statement issued at 10 o'clock proved to be equal to the highest estimates. In a dull market with all the lending speculators interested on the "short" side, the uncertainties and erroneous reports emanating from interested operators should have depressed values. That they did not do so to any appreciable extent is only cumulative evidence that "leading operators" are at a discount when on the wrong side of a non-speculative evidence that all leading operators are at a discount when on the wrong side of a non-speculative developed a large new horrowing demand for St. Paul, and the situation in other stocks was unchanged. Early another drive at Chicago and Northwestern stock was made, and its price was unchanged. Early another drive at Chicago and Northwestern stock was made, and its price was unchanged. Early another drive at Chicago and Northwestern stock was made, and its price was executed the stock. In sympathy with the general market, yielded to 115 3-8, against 116 1-4 last evening. Let us give the bears in Northwestern a little comfort. The company's carnings for August, 1887, was a gain of $270,000 on August, 1886. The St. Paul statement was not issued till after 4 o'clock. It is bad enough, as is shown above. If it, as it is is bad enough, as is shown above. If it, as it is is bad enough, as is shown above. If it, as it is is an enough, as is shown above. If it, as it is is an enough, as is shown above. If it, as it is is an enough to be long before its various issues of 5 per cent bonds would be selling at 50 or under. Yet a banking firm, after an investigation by its own expect, has taken the new 5s, issued in place of the Evanston of Southwest and Southwestern Imps will restore all rates September 23. Think it is only a question of a day or two when rates in Northwest will be advanced and all matters in
